WHITELAW REID HAS QUIT

A Veteran Newspaper Man Leaves Editorial Chair.

New York, March 13.—Whitelaw Reid, editor-in-chief of the New York Tribune since 1872, announced his retirement from that position, in consequence of his acceptance of ambassadorship to the court of St. James.

WHITELAW REID.

Mr. Reid's retirement has made necessary a reorganization of the Tribune. Hart Lyman, long a member of the editorial staff, succeeds Mr. Reid. Donald Nicholson, who has served the paper 25 years, retired at his own request from the managing editorship, and is succeeded by James Martin, who has been on the editorial staff since 1876.

PASSIE CHADWICK GUILTY

Her Counsel Declares the Verdict Was Not in Accord With the Indictment.

Cleveland, O., March 13.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick was found guilty of conspiracy to violate the United States banking laws by conspiring to procure the certification of checks on a national bank when there were no funds in the bank to her credit. She was found guilty on every count of the indictment upon which the jury was at liberty to judge her, seven in all. The original indictment contained 16 counts. Two of these were ruled out during the trial by Judge Taylor, and of the remaining 14, one-half charged her with securing the certification of checks without having the proper entries made on the books of the bank. Judge Taylor, in his charge, directed the jury to disregard these counts, and consider only the remaining seven, which related to the certification with no funds on deposit. On all of these the jury found against her.

Under the law she can be fined on each count not more than $10,000 nor imprisonment more than two years on each count.

In speaking of the verdict, J. P. Dawley, Mrs. Chadwick's senior counsel, said that it was not in accord with the terms of the indictments, and that the case would be taken to the court of appeals as soon as possible.

Cripple Creek, Col., March 11.—The jury in the case of James M. Warford, the deputy sheriff who shot and killed Christopher Miller and Isaac Lebo at the polls in Goldfield on election day, November 8 last, was discharged, having failed to agree after deliberating over seventy hours.

A SUGGESTION TO RUSSIAN CZAR

Make a Dramatic Appeal to the Nobles and the Zemstvos.

MAKE THEM SOLEMN PROMISES

Make a Stirring Appeal, Through Them, to the People to Lojally Rally and Co-operate in Pushing War to Successful End.

The council of war summoned by Emperor Nicholas is reported to have declared, yesterday, that the war must be carried forward. The all-important question of Bunnell means, however, is said to have reached no solution, the situation being complicated by the reported decision of French capitalists not to negotiate the loan recently offered by St. Petersburg. The probability is regarded in St. Petersburg as being that when Gen. Kuropatkin has completed the task of reorganizing what is left of his army he will be permitted to return to Russia, and that the command in Manchuria will be intrusted to Gen. Sukhomlinov, whose war apprenticeship was served under Gen. Drankoff, who has been regarded the foremost of Russia's scientific soldiers.

St. Petersburg, March 15, 12:30 a. m.

A bold way out of the perplexities of the present situation has been suggested, namely, that Emperor Nicholas travel in state to the ancient capital of Moscow, summon the nobles and leading members of the zemstvos around him in the sacred precincts of the Kremlin, frankly lay the situation before them, publicly pledge his word for the execution of the projected reforms and make a stirring personal appeal through them to the people to lojally rally to the support of the Russian arms and co-operate in prosecuting the war to a successful termination.

Such a personal appeal from the sovereign undoubtedly would have a powerful effect throughout the country, and for the dynasty would have an advantage over the plan of submitting the question of peace or war to the zemsky sobor, which some of the newspapers are agitating.

The Novye Vremya, in a strong article headed "Precious Moments Lost," reviews the situation leading up to the defeat of the army in Manchuria, the grave nature of the internal tragedy at Moscow, the bloody events at Warsaw, Riga and Baku, the series of attempts upon individual representatives of the civil and military authority, and the increasing boldness of the claims of the non-Russian provinces, some of which are threatening and others even making attempts at armed uprising, as in Georgia.

Finland, the Novoe Vremya declares, is arming; Jews everywhere are fanning the flames of revolution and the danger of the agrarian movement is increasing.

The article concludes: "There is no time to waste. The rescript is a fortnight old, and nothing has been done. The assembly of representatives, which it contemplates must meet at once, and the best form is that of the old zemsky sobor."

Criticism on the conduct of the war, which has been appearing in the newspapers, has been aggravated by Gen. Kuropatkin's defeat, and is now of the most outspoken character. The Russ formally abandons all hope for the success of the war under the present regime, sarcastically pointing out that the administration, in its desire to provide Vladivostok with coal, is supplying the Japanese fleet.

M. Kirdlof, the press correspondent who was wounded at Liao Yang, declares that the brave, splendid Russian troops were defeated as much by the bureaucracy as by the Japanese.

THE RUSSIANS AT THE PASS.

They are Bringing Order Out of Chaos and Preparing For Next.

The Pass, March 15.—As after the battle of Liao Yang the advance of the Japanese army against the new positions of the Russians at Tie pass is very slow. The leading columns are eight or ten miles southward, and in touch with the Russian van posts, but the operations at present are not serious. Field Marshal Oyama shows slight intention of pressing his advantage in an immediate attack on Tie pass. It is possible, however, that a wide turning movement, of which reports are current, is in progress. In such operations the Japanese have the immense advantage of several bases and lines of supply, to which is now added the Staminant road, while the Russian army necessarily is dependent on one base and one line of communication, and therefore may easily be outflanked.

In the grand army order is being brought out of chaos with remarkable celerity. The plain in front of Tie pass, which, on March 11, seethed like a nest of ants with the dense and confused mass of transport, artillery and troops, corps, divisions and regiments being scattered and parties inextricably mingled, has been cleared, regiments reorganized, stragglers sent to their respective commands, organizations have taken their assigned positions, and to-day the same soldiers who, on March 10, became a terror-stricken, disorganized mass of gray at a few shots from a little detachment of Japanese, or who even fled in panic, firing indiscriminately in all directions as they ran at the mere baseless cry of "Japanese cavalry," are now gathered singly about the camp fires with new courage, ready to oppose with stubborn resistance an attack on Tie pass.

FRENCH BANKERS REVOLT

They Draw the Purse Strings Tightly Against Russia.

While the Proposed Loan Has Only Been "Postponed," That Is Regarded as Tantamount to Refusal.

London, March 15.—The revolt of the French bankers is considered by the London newspapers as the most hopeful and important news of the day, promising an early conclusion of peace between Russia and Japan. Apparently the proposed loan has not been absolutely refused, but only "postponed." This, however, is regarded here as being tantamount to a refusal, and is expected to speak louder to the Russian war party even than Kuropatkin's reverse at Mukden. It is the general belief that by the death of M. Germain, the late governor of the Credit Lyonnais, Russia lost her strongest financial friend in France, and that had he been alive no difficulty would have been experienced. With the American and English markets closed to her, it is thought that Russia can only turn to Germany, who is not likely to be much more responsive than France, and the only alternative would seem to be to make peace.

Reports are current here that Japan will now demand an indemnity of between $500,000,000 and $750,000,000.

MISSOURI GOVERNOR ANGRY.

The State Senate Defeated His Pet Measure, Aimed at Uncertainty of Bribery.

Jefferson City, Mo., March 15.—The senate has thrown down the gauntlet to Gov. Joseph W. Folk by defeating his anti-bribery witness bill, 14 to 13, and the state's chief executive, in a white-hot interview, immediately accepted the challenge.

"This question will be a vital issue two years hence," the governor declared, "and if I can prevent it no senator who voted against the bill will come back to the senate."

The proposed law grew out of the experience of Gov. Folk while circuit attorney of St. Louis, in securing the testimony in bribery cases of men who had accepted bribes.

Those who voted for the bill were: Clark of Jackson, DeVilbiss of Miller, Dickinson of Henry, Ely of Dunklin, Fields of Linn, Gilmore of Jackson, Hicks of Saline, McNatt of Lawrence, Vories of Buchanan, Vornall of Clay and Young of Texas.

Those opposed to the passage were: Senators Baumann of St. Louis, Buchanan of Monticello, Curry of Ozark, Howell of Lewis, Farris of Crawford, Farris of Stoddard, McAllister of Monroe, McDavid of Greene, McIndoe of Jasper, Morton of Ray, Nelson of St. Louis, Peck of Atchison, Sartorius of St. Louis, and Walker of Boone.

After the result was announced Senators Bradley of St. Francois and Avery of Lincoln, on motion, were allowed to have their votes recorded aye.

FUNERAL OF SENATOR BATE.

Impressive, Though Simply, Services Marked the Interment of William B. Bate.

Nashville, Tenn., March 15.—Impressive, though simple, services, participated in by the legislature, supreme court, state officials, United Confederate veterans and state guard and the Washington congressional escort, were held in the hall of the house of representatives over the remains of the late United States Senator William Brimley Bate. The religious services were conducted by Rev. D. C. Kelly, who was a colonel under Gen. N. B. Forest, and Dr. Lansing Burrows, a confederate veteran.

ST. LOUIS NEGRO WANTS PIE.

J. Milton Turner, of St. Louis, Introduced to the President, and Wants Something.

Washington, March 15.—J. Milton Turner, a St. Louis negro, is advanced by Representative Bartholdt as a candidate for recorder of deeds in the District of Columbia.

Bartholdt introduced Turner to the president, and told Mr. Roosevelt that Turner is "one of the most prominent negro orators of the country."

Candidates for the position sought by Turner are numerous, and it is thought he has little chance.

DRAWING OF PARTY LINES.

Failure of the Dominican Treaty in the Senate Now Almost a Foregone Conclusion.

Washington, March 15.—The discussion of the Dominican treaty, in executive session of the senate, Tuesday, resulted in the drawing of party lines. The democrats who have been reported as likely to support the treaty will return to the fold, it is said, and on both sides of the chamber it is admitted there is little prospect that the convention will be ratified.

Conspiracy at Seoul.

London, March 15.—The Times correspondent at Tokio reports that a conspiracy has been discovered at Seoul to induce the emperor of Korea to repudiate the Japanese convention and seek refuge in a foreign legation. The conspirators, it is said, have been arrested.
